A rectangular maze puzzle. The entrance is on the left side, indicated by a yellow rocket ship icon. The exit is at the bottom right corner, marked by a red flag icon. A thick orange line traces a path from the rocket ship through various turns and dead ends, eventually reaching the flag. The maze consists of black lines forming walls on a white background. There are several small decorative stars in the corners: pink and teal in the top right, and teal and yellow in the bottom left.
